

As survivors, we are entitled to vote without sacrificing our safety. Our voices will be heard, our stories will not be ignored, and our votes will be counted.

If you're a survivor of domestic violence or stalking, Florida's Address Confidentiality Program (ACP) can help protect your privacy and exercise your right to vote safely.

WHAT IS AN ADDRESS CONFIDENTIALITY PROGRAM (ACP)?

Address Confidentiality Programs (ACP) protect survivors and their families from harmful individuals by providing a legal substitute address to use instead of their existing address. ACP addresses are NOT public record and may be used for court and government records (e.g., driver's licenses; voter registration; etc.). The ACP forwards all first-class, registered, and certified mail to a survivor's real address, free of charge.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

 - + Assault (or Aggravated Assault)

VOTING AND THE FLORIDA ADDRESS CONFIDENTIALITY PROGRAM (ACP)

HOW WOULD I REGISTER TO VOTE OR UPDATE MY VOTER REGISTRATION INFORMATION?

As an ACP participant, you can register to vote for continuous address confidentiality (if you're already a registered voter). Register through your county's Supervisor of Elections' Office with your ACP certificate / authorization form.

In order to assign you to the proper precinct, only your Supervisor of Elections will know your real address.

Your name, address, and telephone number will NOT appear on any public voter registration list. If you are already registered and your name is in the statewide voter registration database, it will be removed, and your application will be maintained as a paper file only

HOW WOULD I CAST MY BALLOT AND KEEP MY INFORMATION CONFIDENTIAL?

All voting must be done by mail-in ballot. Your ballot will be mailed to the Office of the Attorney General, who will then forward it to the mailing address you have provided them.

WHAT HAPPENS IF MY PREVIOUS REGISTRATION HAS OR MAY HAVE BEEN POSTED ONLINE?

The Supervisor of Elections will remove all registration(s), voting(s), and recorded vote-by-mail request(s) from local databases. If necessary, the Supervisor of Elections will coordinate with other counties to remove all similar records.

HOW WILL MY INFORMATION SHOW UP IN A FUTURE VOTER REGISTRATION SEARCH?

Once registered as an ACP voter through your county's Supervisor of Elections' Office, your name, address, and telephone number will not appear on any public voter registration lists.
