

As survivors, we are entitled to vote without sacrificing our safety. Our voices will be heard, our stories will not be ignored, and our votes will be counted.

If you are a survivor of domestic violence, sexual assault, human trafficking, kidnapping or stalking, the Delaware Address Confidentiality Program (ACP) can help you protect your privacy and exercise your right to vote safely.

WHAT IS AN ADDRESS CONFIDENTIALITY PROGRAM (ACP)?

Address Confidentiality Programs (ACP) protect survivors and their families from harmful individuals by providing a legal substitute address to use instead of their existing address.

ACP addresses are NOT public record and may be used for court and government records (e.g., driver's licenses; voter registration; etc.). The ACP forwards all first-class, registered, and certified mail to a survivor's real address, free of charge.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

- + Delaware residents who are one of. The following:
 - + A survivor of domestic violence, sexual assault, human trafficking, kidnapping, or stalking who has filed for a protection from abuse order or who is or was named as a victim in any criminal or delinquency proceeding
 - + A person who has obtained or is seeking relief from a domestic violence program or service, as certified by the director (or designee) of that program
 - + At least 18 years of age, OR a parent / guardian on behalf of a minor or an incapacitated person, OR a member of the same household as a program participant
